

VISUAL DESCRIPTION:

The image is a "48th Biennial" announcement for the Kansas Association of the Deaf (KAD) Biennial General Business Meeting. Here's a visual description:

- Header: The top part of the image reads "48TH BIENNIAL" in large, dark blue text.
- Logo: To the left, there's the KAD logo, a circular emblem with "Kansas Association of the Deaf" written around it. Inside the circle, "KAD" is prominently displayed.
- Background: There's a silhouette of the Wichita, Kansas skyline, depicted in a dark blue shade, reflecting below.
- Main Event Information:
 - The text "BIENNIAL GENERAL BUSINESS MEETING" is in bold, dark blue capital letters centered below the skyline.
 - Date: The meeting is scheduled for Saturday, June 21, 2025.
 - Time: The meeting starts at 10 a.m. and ends at 4:00 pm.
 - Venue: The meeting will be in the Woosley Hall Auditorium at the Wichita State University, 1845 Fairmount St, Wichita, KS 67260.
- Additional Details:
 - A note states, "Deaf Kansans who are members of KAD have voting rights at the Biennial General Business Meeting," in smaller, bold blue text.
 - Membership Information: At the bottom, it reads, "Not yet a member? Get your membership at: www.deafkansas.org/member" in blue text. A QR code is offered as an option to go directly to the website.

The color scheme is primarily dark blue on a white background, creating a professional and clean appearance.
